CAMBRIDGE HIGH AND LATIN SCHOOL

Mr. Cleveland

We, the members of the Class of 1938, appreciate with grateful hearts the sympathy, understanding and sage counsel of our headmaster, Mr. Cleveland. We hope that in the years to come he will look back upon our class as one worthy of his expert guidance.

Dedication

To Mr. Bramhall, who has always been the first to lend us his invaluable assistance, and without whose kindliness, patience and foresight we should have been able to accomplish but little, we affectionately dedicate this our yearbook.

THOMAS LONG BRAMHALL
Assistant Headmaster

Thomas Long Bramhall

Prologue

With a mixture of joy and sorrow in our hearts we are about to leave the school which during four years has been to us a fond parent, providing us with friends and activities as well as necessary education.

Some of us plan to continue our education in higher places of learning, whereas others plan to start at once to contribute to the general support of family and home. We face the future with joy, but it is a joy tinged with regret at leaving a place which has become so much a part of us.

In Memoriam

Mr. James H. Leonard

This school year though filled with many happy memories has nevertheless left with us an indelible sorrow. The ordinary peaceful and happy course of our school life was darkened shortly before the Christmas holidays by the death of our beloved master, James H. Leonard. While Mr. Leonard's passing was a severe loss to the High School at large, it dealt a staggering blow to the pupils at the Annex, who had come to know Mr. Leonard in an intimate manner. His kindly advice, noble example of self sacrifice, and heartfelt and sincere interest in the welfare of his boys endeared him like a father to all those coming under his care. Mr. Leonard was the most noble example of the true teacher, insisting always that the pupil was the prime consideration of the school. Physically handicapped himself from early life, he was always imbued with a sympathetic understanding for the less fortunate who chanced to come under his care.

We do not forget either that besides all this and besides being a true gentleman, he was a brilliant scholar. Few men have minds as keen and as broad.

He answered the call of the angel of death on December 5, 1937. Mr. Leonard died as he undoubtedly would have wished, at his office desk in the school he loved, and of which he was the first master and the guiding genius.

As we leave high school and enter the laboratory of life, there to work out our individual destinies, we cannot help but feel that the indomitable spirit of our late beloved master will be our surest guide, our noblest example for a useful life.

May he rest in peace.

RECEPTION COMMITTEE
Standing: Thomas Campbell, Frances Nugent, John Reardon.
Sitting: Edna Sullivan, Virginia Frazel, Ivy Peterson, Marjorie Shine.

We stand today before the world's wide door,
Half eager, half afraid to know what lies
Beyond. Yet some instinctive spirit bids
Us use the key we have been given to Unlock this entrance to the outer world.
Some sadness mingles with our joy, as from
These well-loved halls we go to find our place.
But once we cross the threshold of this door
The key must not be laid aside to rust,
Or scornfully ignored. It has a use!
Before us is a winding road that leads
Us on to greener pastures of success,
And all along the way are other doors
Whose locks our key will fit, if we so choose.
We hope, as generations previous
Have hoped, that peace, prosperity and wealth
Will bless us all our journey through. The soul
Was born to know the greatest bliss; to sense
If not to see true beauty and we long
For every beauty to enrich the earth.

But such things cannot be unless we make Them so.
Our task, therefore, is not to change
What has been done, but add our humble share
To God's design, and thus, in part, repay
The debt we owe Him for the gift of life.
Each of us was placed here for a purpose,
Made for something, great or small; and though
The road we follow to attain our goal
May not be easy, still we profit by Mistakes.
As we set forth upon the road
Let one great supplication fill our hearts—
That we may be as seed that falls on rich
And fertile soil, that prospers and increases,
To give abundantly to all mankind.

Helen Skilton

A Song at Graduation

With mem'ries ling'ring, from the shore we scan this surging sea,
Eager to board our ship of Hope and seek our destiny;
The waves will leap, the storms will break, the whirlpools,
endless be,
Grant we may never grope and sink, submerged in mystery.
Clear may the beacon light of Faith forever be our guide,
And may the tolling of the buoys a warning note provide;
Yet if we crash upon the rocks where treacherous they hide,
May we, by glowing faith inspired, remount the swelling tide.

The history of the Class of 1938 is undeniably a brilliant one. Even in its last days it is still gathering laurels for Cambridge High and Latin School. Its momentum has reached a pitch heretofore unattainable by any other class. In certain lines of endeavor, such as oratory, journalism, and chess, our class has made new records which we think can never be broken.

Imbued with a vigor peculiar to freshmen, we started our four year high school career, with constant high ideals and hopeful faces, upturned to the future.

While silently wondering if that distant year of 1938 would ever arrive, we were gently eased into the high school routine. We even became accustomed to finding our way through a perfect maze of corridors, with rooms jutting out at all angles. Ambition was so prevalent that some even did their homework regularly. It has just occurred to us that that may be the reason why so many freshmen attain the honor roll. The fleetness of time amazed us; before we were aware of it, we were no longer freshmen.

In September 1935, we returned after a restful summer, but somehow things were not the same. No longer were we terrified by teachers, and during that year the school grew less formidable. Inevitable freshmen knickers gave way to long pants, obviously short in order to display the bright hues of sport socks. The girls, on arriving at school, indulged in the art of makeup; ankle socks were replaced by silk hose. Sophistication had begun its work.

Upon the arrival of the new freshmen class, we Sophomores casually folded our arms and nodded our wise heads, refusing to believe that it wasn't so long since we were as childish as those new-comers. The number on the honor roll fell off considerably as we learned the folly of homework. Assemblies were introduced, and with them the knowledge that among ourselves were flourishing budding geniuses, such as our accomplished pianist Harper MacKay, and oratorically inclined Mary Buckley and Morris Burk. Many of our number were welcomed into the various upper classmen's clubs as well as to the Review Staff. The new subjects of last year were now accepted with a casualness that would do justice to a movie queen.

Then more suddenly than the last year we found ourselves again being promoted. At last we were upper classmen!

Juniors!

It took a little while to realize the fact. Why it was just a few weeks ago that we entered the school!

With the realization of our grandeur, whiffles were more prevalent among the '38ers. The girls were suave young ladies, different from the sporty young things who last year flitted about the first and second floors.

Then politics entered.

The scene changed. The aspiring candidates flooded the school with gay election cards, reminding their classmates to vote for them. The "Will you sign my papers?" and "Of course you'll vote for me" were cheerfully spoken while passing through the corridors. When the eventful day arrived, we selected our class officers as follows:

President	Ray Guild
Vice-Presidents	Marie Conlon and John Mahoney
Secretary	Edna K. Sullivan
Treasurer	Mortimer Downey

Various very capable committees were also elected, and our first attempt at class government proved hugely successful.

On the evening of April 19, 1937, approximately three hundred Juniors arrived at Walker Memorial splendidly attired in gay, fluttering gowns and conservative tuxedos.

Remember?

The gliding couples dancing extremely well; the little groups sitting in various nooks and crannies admiring the beautiful scene about them; the clusters of girls commending each other's dresses—all were truly grown up. There wasn't the slightest trace of that bizarreness so dominant only a few years ago in the freshman class of 1938. We were having our first taste of night life and formality, and we enjoyed it immensely. The Junior Prom will never be forgotten by those who attended. It was one of the happiest times of our lives. The same Johnny Freshman who had gazed up at the epitaph over the door with an open mouth, awed by the significance of the statement, was escorting little Mary with freckles on her nose and undignified flat heeled shoes. Johnny had his license and Mary walked without faltering on extremely high heels.

The change was unbelievable. Yet there we were, each of us a typical Johnny or Mary, Johnny with his unruly hair neatly kept in place with the aid of some sort of—shall we call it tonic—and Mary exuberant with the fragrance of her first corsage, and somewhat anxious over the results of a cream that was sure to make freckles unnoticeable.

Life as a Senior, although busy, has been pleasant to the highest degree. Through a great train of school activities, including the football games, hockey, the G. A. A. formal, and the K. B. formal, the coming Junior Sport Hop, we find ourselves suddenly realizing that no longer are we able to look forward to another year of these intriguing events so outstanding in a high school career.

The successful candidates in the class officers' election were:

President	John King
Vice-President	John Mahoney
Secretary	Edna K. Sullivan
Treasurer	Frederick Coolen

A Senior Reception Committee and a Senior Drama Committee were also elected. Under the capable leadership of our class officers we are planning for a successful graduation.

The drama presented by the class of 1938, "The Torchbearers" was not only well attended, but also very well acted and extremely interesting.

Surely the fact that our excellent school magazine, "The Review" has attained the goal of being in medalist class in the Columbia University Scholastic Press Association should be mentioned in this resume of the Class of 1938. For the past few years we received the award of a second place but this year, due to redoubled efforts we have been able to produce a periodical worthy of honor as a medalist, thereby skipping first place. This great honor was won by the excellent spirit of cooperation between our faculty adviser, Miss Mary P. Bligh and her talented staff, headed by Editor-in-Chief Paul Lowry. We hope the pupils of Cambridge High and Latin School will go on as we have and continue to win great laurels for "The Review."

Our class is proud of their brilliant classmate, Mary Buckley. She, through her sheer genius, has won the State-wide contest for oratory, conducted by the American Legion. The prize is a hundred dollars and a scholarship to an oratorical college.

In an entirely different field, chess, our Stanley Ramonas also won a State championship. His prowess and skill at chess were recognized by Mr. Bliss who coaches the chess club, and after a great deal of competition he has come out on top.

Pictures have been taken and exchanged; rings have been bought; the year book is in progress and the stage is nearly set for graduation. The week of June the 7th will arrive soon, bringing with it that day of days—the day that will terminate our high school career—Graduation Day! And on the 10th of June, we expect to hold our Reception, plans for which are now being made.

Some of us will go far in life; some not so far; but no matter when, where, or how often we think of the dear old days happily spent in Cambridge High and Latin we shall experience an exhilaration that will counterbalance any sorrow or trial we may have to bear.

With these thoughts in mind we go forth to higher education or out in a place in the world, and leave our stamp effectively engraved on the school.

Thomas Campbell

SENIOR DRAMA

As a fitting climax to our four years of memorable activities, the Class of 1938 presented on February 18th at eight o'clock in the Rindge Auditorium our senior drama entitled "The Torch Bearers," a three-act comedy by George Kelley.

The play, a satire on amateur theatricals portrays the dramatic debut of Paula Ritter, a young matron whose ambition ensnares her into many amusing situations.

Synopsis

In the first act, Mr. Ritter returns from a trip to find his house overrun with would-be actors and actresses in the throes of a rehearsal for a play in which his wife is to be the star. In spite of his objections the play is presented to the public at Horticultural Hall. Here the scene takes place backstage. The excitement and ridiculous mishaps of these rising stars as they tripped on and off the stage forgetting their properties and cues, was a hilarious portrayal of the backstage excitement of a typical amateur theatrical. In the third act Mr. Ritter asserts himself and nips Mrs. Ritter's acting career in the bud, after which it is understood that the Ritters go back to living a normal, but we are certain quite novel existence.

SENIOR DRAMA CAST

Characters

Doris Glassman charmingly enacted the role of the beautiful but slightly off-balanced Mrs. Ritter. Her clowning had the air of seriousness; this made the role twice as funny to the audience who took her to their hearts as they might a bewildered child. Martin Ryan ably portrayed our frustrated husband, Mr. Ritter. He artistically brought out every inch of irony in his lines so that not one of the double meaning, sarcastic remarks were lost to the audience. He fitted admirably into the role of the prosperous business man and husband.

As the stately and domineering Mrs. J. Duro Pampinelli we saw Priscilla Stressenger, one of our most talented seniors. She breezed through every act with the vitality and poise of a professional sending the audience into peals of laughter at her ridiculous affectations. As a typical amateur director she held the comedy at a high pitch as she flustered about controlling every situation in the funniest possible manner. The audience loved her!

That all-round nuisance, Mr. Spindler, was enacted by Sheldon Land. His clever pantomime provided some of the best humorous sequences in the play. He quite artistically tripped and fell over every property on the stage, so that it was a source of wonder to everyone when he emerged from the role uninjured.

Ann Wood did outstanding work in the portrayal of the spry and flirtatious Nelly Fell. She flitted throughout the play rendering lines in an amazingly high-pitched voice, which convulsed the audience.

Margaret Moriarty was very refreshing as the trim, young maid Jenny, who remained so faithful to her much abused mistress.

SENIOR DRAMA COMMITTEE
P. Lamb, W. Hansen.
H. Green, D. DeBye, Miss Hartigan, E. Crowley

Peter Kenny as Huxley Hossefrosse and Edna Sullivan as Florence McCrickett co-starred in some of the funniest scenes of the play. Edna's blonde beauty was set off to advantage in the role of the sparkling vivacious society girl, while Peter Kenny unlike his usual poise amazed his classmates by his portrayal of the absent-minded, ridiculously serious Hossefrosse.

Del Duquette as the delicate Teddy Spearing provided one of the high lights of the play when he fainted in the midst of a scene of rollicking confusion. "Del," one of our most prominent seniors, deserves much praise for his characterization, as does Bill Joyce who played the egotistical role of Ralph Twiller with remarkable humor.

As the bored but competent stage manager we had Edward McKenna. His characterization was typical of stage managers throughout the country and his splendid pantomime deserves recognition.

Mary Buckley portrayed the absurd, sad-eyed widow of "Poor Jimmy Sheppard."

All the credit for the finished production which met an approving audience on February 18th may be attributed to the fine coaching of Miss Hartigan, who has been presenting outstanding plays for a number of years. Only through her constant, painstaking work was such a polished production made possible.

Much commendation is also due Miss Wait, who had charge of the music during the interludes of the play. The orchestra under her direction completed an eventful night of splendid entertainment.

Another year passes on and another memorable drama is placed in the colorful history of senior plays. The Class of 1938 is indeed proud of its most oustanding success!

DRAMATIC CLUB OFFICERS

DRAMATIC CLUB

The year 1937-1938 has been one of the most eventful in the history of the Dramatic Club. At the first meeting of the year, a completely new Constitution was placed before the members by the club officers:

Mary Buckley ..... President
Frances Morison ..... Vice-President
Peggy Cass ..... Secretary
Josephine Panariello ..... Treasurer

The main innovation of the new Constitution called for a series of monthly plays to be cast, directed and produced by the members themselves. Other changes were made prescribing monthly meetings and a more business-like method of conducting the affairs of the club.

After this Constitution had been approved by an overwhelming majority, the attention of the Club was turned to the completion of a school-wide drive for the new members needed for the successful carrying out of the already well filled program of activities. During this drive a one act play, The Rising of the Moon, with a cast including Jerome Crowley, Gordon Buchannan, and Everett Hart, was presented before the assemblies. The campaign was most successful, with well over thirty members being admitted to the Club.

During the course of the year, the following monthly plays were produced and presented by the members of the club:

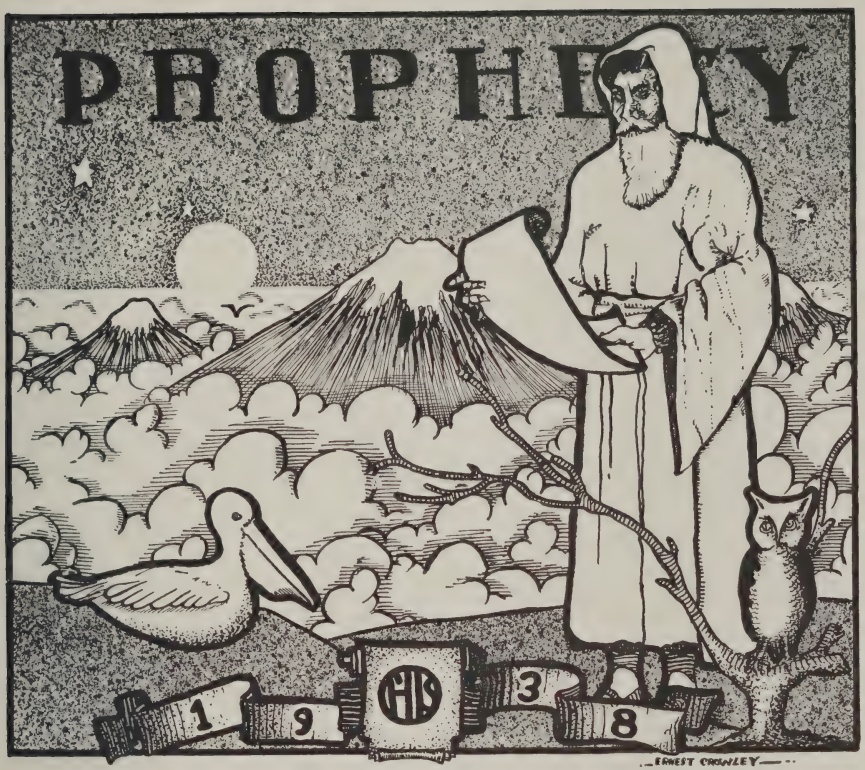
Overtures
Out Of The Mouths Of
September Afternoon
The Fluttering Wood
The Valiant
The Admirable Crichton

Out of the Mouths Of—was presented at the Christmas Party, a gala affair which also featured a dramatic monologue by Barbara Gilbert, song by Shirley Frim, and refreshments.

In addition to the monthly plays, the Dramatic Club sponsored many outside activities, the first of which was Talent Night. This annual event was sponsored in cooperation with the Durrell Debating Society and the Chess Club, and was well supported both by the Talented ones and their admirers. Later in the year, the Dramatic Club presented a Shakespearean afternoon, a well executed performance which well deserved the admiration it received. Scenes from three of Shakespeare's best known plays, As You Like It, Julius Caesar, and Hamlet, were presented. With its popularity among the students definitely proved by this second successful year, the Shakespearean Afternoon is well on its way to become an annual event on the Dramatic Club Program.

Capping all previous meetings, the final official meeting of the Club presented for the first time in C. H. L. S. a Pantomime Dance. The presentation of the Dance was in accordance with the new policy of extending the activities of the Club to cover all fields of dramatic art.

Before closing, the members and officers of the Dramatic Club wish to take this opportunity to offer our deepest thanks and appreciation to Miss Johnson, our faculty adviser, whose unfailing help and sympathy have contributed so much to the success of the Dramatic Club season of 1938.



Life has taken a new turn of events; new names are blazing their way on the paths of glory. This is your "Gossip" reporter brought to you through the courtesy of Station C. H. L. S., bringing you news and gossip regarding the class of '38.

Marty Ryan, youngest prōducer on Broadway, has just opened his new play called, "I Didn't Want To Do It" which is proving a real "hit". He has as his leading lady, that inimitable little actress, Catherine Gould. Others in the cast include: Ruth Gough, Josephine Panariello, Edward Osborne, Dorothy Twomey, Delphis Duquette, Frances Bradbury, Paul Nolan, and Paul Hillery.

Mary Mayo is tendering a reception tonight for Edna K. Sullivan, who is visiting from Hollywood, where she has just completed another motion picture under the able direction of Ernest Crowley. Aiding Miss Mayo, is a very dependable committee consisting of Mary O'Donnell, Alice Ray, Margaret Sullivan and Ruth Veinot.

Mary Burns and Rita England have opened a dance studio and are simplifying the most intricate dance steps of today.

Lovely Virginia Frazel has opened an exclusive dress shop on Fifth Avenue. Among her beautiful and experienced models are: Gertrude Grady, Florence Martin, Norma Wilson, Helen Yankum, and Ethel Crean.

Orchids to Jack King who was recently elected Governor of Massachusetts. Also successful in elections was Morris Burk, who is now the new Mayor of Cambridge.

Harper MacKay and "Larry" Colgan are opening an elite night club in Miami. Ray Bloom's orchestra, which boasts of such accomplished musicians as Michael Rizzo, Longin Biuinis, Ed McKenna, and Billy Morrill, will play there for the first few weeks. As an added attraction, they are featuring that gorgeous singing and dancing star, Dorothy DeBye. In the line of chorus girls are Gloria Morabito, Frances Nugent, Alice Norton, Alice Hollis, and Mary Sibley.

Charles Terry has completed his first musical comedy in which he gives a very good exhibition of dancing with that talented young star, Pauline Nutter.

Peter Kenny and Sheldon Land have written a new play which is a satire on dictators.

According to the latest radio bulletin the public chose "Jim" McNamara as the funniest comedian, John Stewart the best sports announcer, Edna C. Sullivan the outstanding dramatic star and Lillie DeMille the favorite singer. Congratulations!

Mary Buckley has just returned from Europe, where she has spent the last few months lecturing on "How the Einstein theory of a fourth dimension, though impractical, may be verified through intensive research."

Nancy Crowley, president of Radcliffe College, has written a book entitled, "The Why of Education."

Arthur Sennott was recently appointed Ambassador to England. "Bob" Sheehan has written a popular song called "All About Me." He seems to be an important song-writer in Tin Pan Alley.

Irma Hoijer has opened an Interior Decorating office and has working in her establishment, Martha Corcoran, Lillian Battit, Mildred Button, and Ruth Bee.

Phyllis Chase and Vincent Tobin are singing with the Chicago Opera Company.

"Bill" Galgay and "Bill" Dynan, noted sports writers are now in Santa Anita, covering the races and probably betting a little too.

Mary Burke and Marie Conlon, popular young debutantes, have opened an ultra-modern candy store in New York. They call it the Kozy Korner Kandy Kitchen. I understand that Margaret Donahue and Frances Gordon take care of the place while Mary and Marie go visiting the night spots with their escorts . . . lucky girls!

Anne Doyle won quite a bit of money and is now operating a fashionable beauty salon.

Russell Arnold will show his rare collection of coins at Jordan Hall next Friday night.

Vincent Doyle, prize fighter, has a new manager, namely William Abbt. He is scheduled to fight in Boston some time next month.

Alice Montgomery and Mary Kane, representatives of the famous Julia Coffey cosmetics, are touring the Eastern states, lecturing on the art of make-up.

Gerald Segal, popular radio crooner, refuses to go back on the air unless he can sing to the tune of $3500 a year. We hope he gets it.

The Bruins are playing their first game at the Garden next Wednesday, and in the lineup we find such old Latin favorites as Frank Briand, Jiggs Mahony, Tibby Phaneuf, and Mort Buckley. Manager Walter Boudreau is positive of a victorious season.

The works of such famous artists as Theodore Anastos, Randolph Campbell, Thomas O'Hara, Josephine Gabalis and William Frank will be on exhibition at the Fine Arts Museum soon.

The Tahmosh sisters and Josephine Ciccolo are nurses in the Massachusetts General Hospital. Their superintendent is the able Sara McCann.

Henry Green and John Dick are in the African jungles, making a picture for the Walter Hansen film company.

Paul Lowry has been appointed to the distinguished position of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Yale football team is doing very well under the coaching of Latin's former football star, Dick Gaynes. Princeton will also go far with Fred Coolen as their coach.

Edith Saint, prominent stage star, would give no information to George Delaney of the Daily Globe, regarding her refusal to sign a contract with the Flaherty-Villari stage producers.

Thomas Campbell, active politician, has announced his candidacy for the presidency in the coming election. Richard Rowland will be his campaign manager.

Ruth Tisdale is the newly appointed Junior Dean at Cambridge High and Latin School. Fred Cruikshank is now Headmaster and Joseph Sheehan athletic director.

Bill Joyce, head of the Department of Justice, is staging a war against Crime. His able assistants are Donald Doyle, Paul Murphy, John Joseph and David Linehan.

Rupert Blue, successful young lawyer, won the case for the Bernard Mackle Corporation in their fight against the Anthony Valenti Construction Company.

The Olympics are now under way in Germany and the United States is represented in Marjorie Shine, the youthful swimming and diving champion and Lawrence Frisoli, America's track star.

Larry Kelly was just made president of the William Murphy Broadcasting Company.

John Conroy, scion of a wealthy family, has announced his intention of entering the business world. It is rumored that he and Paul Lamb will open a new race track.

Katherine Monahan and Eleanor McTighe have opened a "chic" hat shop.

At a national secretaries' convention held recently the following guests attended: Rose Donabed, Alice Bielenski, Catherine Madden, Catherine McNelis, Helen Lukasewicz, Margery Smith, Catherine Mazza and Muriel Fitzgerald.

The Literary Guild has appointed Sylvia Sugarman to be its president this year.

Ann Wood's book, "How to Eat Your Cake and Have It Too" is now available at all stores.

Joe Regan has also written a book. His subject is "The Art of Making Excuses", on which he is a very good authority.

"Bob" McNally and "Jackie" Reardon are successfully operating a restaurant right near the Madison Square Garden and wrestler "Glen" Perduyn can be seen eating there every day.

"Bill" Patch, Governor of Ohio is vacationing here, paying a visit to his friend, "Hasty" Roewer, football coach at Harvard.

Edith Mazza has had her poems published in one complete volume.

The Boch twins can now retire to a sweet life. Their aunt died, leaving them a candy store.

Marie Grynkiewicz and Barbara Maurer are airline hostesses on the Sidney Grossman Transcontinental Airplanes.

Ray Guild won another trophy for his running in the interstate meet last Friday.

Margaret Mero, hair stylist, is giving a revue of the newest creations in hair dress at the Hotel Sheraton. The coiffures will be presented by Alice Wood, Ruth Perrin, Wanda Yankum and Prudence Chingo.

Alice Paull is the manager of a dainty little tea-room.

Cleopatra Antonopoulos and Mary Roffi have founded a home for stray cats. Mary Kelleher and Mary Folan, not to be outdone have started an Escort Bureau which seems to be very popular amongst the weaker sex.

Doris Glassman is conducting a charm school. Serving on her faculty we find Grace McCaigue, Ellen Ferrick, Elsie Larson, Lillian Humphrys and Eleanor Humphreys, dancing instructor.

Mary Abitabile and Rita Barker were guests of honor at a Farewell party given by Eleanor Misilo. They are leaving for Hollywood to take screen tests. Ruth Sturzel, Editor of the Daily Tribune, presented them with a token from the club.

With the playing of that beautiful song, "Good-bye for a While," written by those well-known composers, Frank Harney and Pauline Brunaka, I say adieu, feeling confident that the Class of 1938 will always be on the topmost rung of the ladder of success.

THE REVIEW

In its fifty-second year of publication, the Cambridge Review again proved itself worthy of the generous support of the student body. The year was characterized by success not only in the general subscription and advertising but also in literary endeavors which ranked especially high.

As a reward for this high quality of literary production membership in the Quill and Scroll, the International Honor Society for High School Journalists was granted to eight members of the Review staff; John Fleming, Peter Kenney, Ann Wood, Nancy Crowley, Harper MacKay, Paul Lowry, Sylvia Sugarman and Theodore Anastos. Each member was presented with a gold pin bearing the insignia of the Quill and Scroll Society and with a certificate of membership in recognition of his outstanding work. It is hoped that a flourishing chapter of this society will be built up in the years to come.

The outstanding achievement of the Review this year is, however, the award given by Columbia. As has been usual in the past, the Review entered the competition this year at Columbia University. From a group of 1200 publications of high schools representing all parts of the country, it was judged worthy of the medalist award, the highest honor granted, for its excellence of material, form, and set-up. This distinction was won for the first time this year.

The staff wishes to thank Miss Bligh, our Faculty Adviser, for her never-failing interest and ever present aid, and to wish those of coming years complete success and the best of luck.

K. B. NOTES

The K. B. has been fortunate this year in procuring the assistance of Miss Buckley as a faculty adviser. The high standards and ideals of the K. B. have been rigidly maintained by the ceaseless efforts and kindly advice of Miss McElroy. With the pleasant memories of an eventful year we once again bring the K. B. activities of the Class of '38 regretfully to a close.

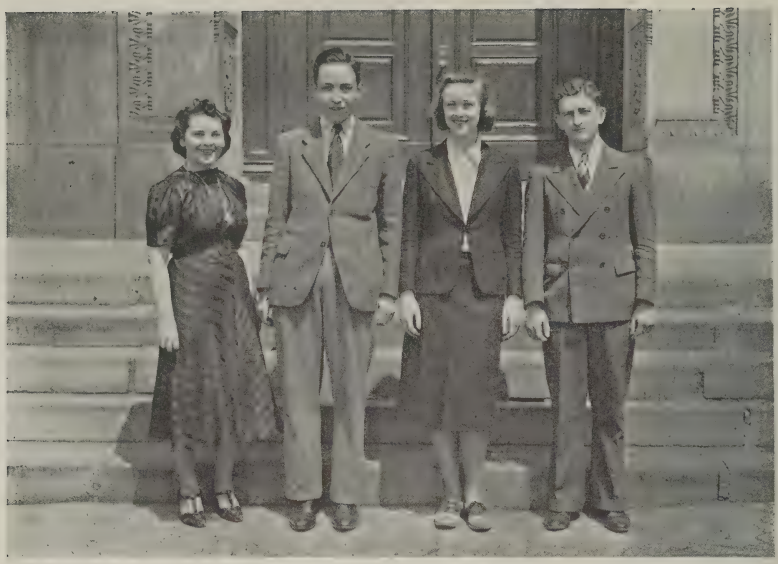
The year began with the selection of twenty-five outstanding Junior and Senior girls who were duly initiated into the Club at a formal meeting held in September at the home of Mary Kelleher. The enthusiasm and good sportsmanship of the members made our annual Christmas Party a memorable occasion. The Yuletide season was fittingly celebrated at this party held at the home of Ann Downey.

As the second semester began, six new members were admitted to our unusually large enrollment. The initiation of these new members took place at the home of Barbara Myles.

On February fourth the K. B. Winter Formal was held at the Hotel Commander. Due to the splendid cooperation of our large membership body the event was one of the most successful dances of the year.

The Club Constitution has been revised and business meetings have been regularly conducted during the recess periods. An informal meeting was held at the home of Eleanor Green to formulate plans for the remaining season.

The interest of a K. B. girl is not limited to studies and social activities as was plainly evident at the K. B. Splash Party held at the Harvard pool. Sporting activities have not been limited to swimming alone for riding classes have been organized under the supervision of our capable instructor and member, Mary Young. ....



DEBATING CLUB OFFICERS
Kathryn Monahan, Joseph Connolly, Mary Buckley, Morris Burk.

DURRELL DEBATING SOCIETY

The year 1938 marks the close of one of the most successful debate seasons for the Durrell Debating Society since its inception twenty-four years ago. The officers who led the club throughout the year were:

President	Morris Burk
Vice-President	Mary Buckley
Secretary-Treasurer	Kathryn Monahan

A system of monthly guest speakers was instituted for the entertainment and education of the members; the underlying idea of the program was to bring to the membership prominent men in various phases of activity in the business world. We are indebted to Mr. John Carver, Mr. Russell Gerould, and Attorney Joseph Gavan, who gave us the benefit of their knowledge and experience.

The interscholastic debaters this year were: Affirmative: Joseph Connolly, Phillip Jones, and Morris Burk; Negative: Mary Buckley, James Cole, and Harry Aster. The question discussed concerned the unicameral, or one house-system of state legislature. The affirmative team went through the season undefeated; the negative lost but one debate. Numbered among those who went down to defeat before the tongues of the Latin debaters were Swampscott, Medford and Watertown. Because participation in the National Forensic League was suspended for the year, competition was afforded by schools in Greater Boston outside league membership.

One of the highlights of the season was a special radio debate over Station W.C.O.P. In this forensic battle over unicameralism an affirmative group composed of Mary Buckley, Joseph Connolly, and Morris Burk took the measure of the Medford High School.

Two of the officers brought further credit to themselves, to the club, and to the school during this past year. Our popular vice-president, Mary Buckley swept through the preliminaries of the American Legion oratorical contests to the State finals where she was crowned the state champion and awarded a four year scholarship to the Staley College. In another state-wide public speaking contest sponsored by the Women's Clubs of Massachusetts, Morris Burk won first prize and a four year scholarship to the same college. The records of these two bespeak the value and extent of their four years' experience as debaters.

To the debaters of the coming year we who graduate leave a cooperative and sympathetic headmaster, Mr. Cleveland, a competent and instructive Oral English staff, and vast opportunities for debate and speaking participation.

We cannot close the season's activity without expressing our debt and gratitude to our Faculty Adviser, Miss Breau, who has always been ready with her constructive advice, leadership, and cooperation.

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club has had one of the best seasons in its history. It has won every match played so far and in no case has any other school come close to winning, although the match with Worcester was hard fought.

Results of Matches: C.H.L.S. 14½, Brookline 2½; C.H.L.S. 8, Brookline 2; C.H.L.S. 3½, Worcester High School of Commerce 1½; C.H.L.S. 5, Worcester High School of Commerce 4; C.H.L.S. 8, Rindge 0; C.H.L.S. 7, Rindge 1; C.H.L.S. 6, Huntington Day 0; C.H.L.S. 9, Huntington Day 0; C.H.L.S. 8, Huntington Day 0; C.H.L.S. 8, Boston Latin 2; C.H.L.S. 4½, Worcester Classical ½; C.H.L.S. 4, C.H.L.S. FOOTBALL

When Coach Sheehan called his candidates together for their initial practice, many veterans along with a horde of inexperienced boys reported.

Latin in their first and annual classic with Somerville lost by a score of 7-0. Due to the fine punting and general all-around play of Walter Boudreau a much larger score was averted.

After suffering successive defeats from Newton, Revere, and Rindge, a rejuvenated Latin team completely outplayed, outguessed, and outfought, a powerful Brookline eleven to the tune of 20-0. Frisoli and Gayne, playing their finest game of the year, hurled the enemy back time after time for successive losses. Unfortunately for Latin, Walter Boudreau while scoring the last touchdown suffered a broken hand.

In addition to this game Latin tied Nashua 6-6, and beat B. C. High 18-0.

Buckley, Boudreau, and Dottin gained most of the ground both by running and passing. Randall, an outstanding back, was elected to lead the team next year.

The following were awarded letters: Capt. Gayne, Capt.-elect Randall, Boyle, Bradley, H. Boudreau, R. Boudreau, Buckley, Carey, Corderio, DeMilia, Dottin, Dupee, Frisoli, Gomatos, Guild, Keefe, King, Mahoney, McClellan, McGoldrick, Meehan, Neimyski, Orr, Perduyn, Roewer, Sheehan, and Manager Rowe.

BASEBALL TEAM

Fourth Row: Bradley, McGrail, Mulcahy, Roewer, McGrath, Buckley, Randall.

Third Row: Wetmore, Manager, Lane, Payne, Galgay, Taft, Galvin, Kelly, Caragianes, Briand, Whelan.

Second Row: Melino, O'Dea, Moran, O'Neil, DeMillia, Mr. Foley, Coach, Brenneau, Brennan, Hart, Crowley, Ameche.

BASEBALL

The prospects for the Cambridge Latin baseball team are very bright. This year's team will be captained by Joe Sheehan, a brilliant and hard-hitting shortstop. First base will be taken care of by Bob Sheehan, who has been converted from an outfielder to a first baseman, due to lack of material at the initial sack. Second and third bases will be held down by Randall and Williams, both veterans of last year's team. The outfield, which is composed of Buckley and Boudreau of hockey fame and Grassia and Caragianes, will provide most of the hitting strength of the team. Roewer, O'Neil, Galligan, McGrail, and Whelan, veterans of last year, along with Galgay and Flannery, two promising new-comers, will provide apt if not sensational mound protection. The following in all probability will receive letters: Capt. Sheehan, H. Roewer, J. Powers, Nelson, M. Buckley, W. Boudreau, B. Sheehan, J. Randall, E. Crowley, H. Lane, L. Shea, H. Williams, F. Bradley, A. Grassia, W. Taft, N. Caragianes, O'Neil, Galligan, J. Whelan, Flannery, J. McGrail, W. Carr.

TRACK TEAM

Middle Row: Mahoney, O'Brien, Malletta, Phiniski, Scott, Patten, Taft, O'Connell, Macaully, Maloy, Williams.
First Row: Sullivan, Dooley, O'Neil, Conley, Gould, Guild, O'Connell, Kennedy, Dupee, Barnard.

TRACK

When Coach Murphy called out the candidates for the track team more than fifty boys reported for the first practice.

In the Boston Garden State Meet, Ray Guild, easily the outstanding member of the track squad, equalled the state record of 34 seconds for 300 yards. This season he was undefeated in the 35 yard and 300 yard dashes, earning 25 points.

Kennedy, a promising freshman, seems to be a one man track team with his contributions in the quarter and half miles, broad jump, and high jump.

Mention should be made of the banquet, given by the Cambridge Lodge of Elks to our State champion, Guild, and our hockey team for this season's impressive victories.

Those receiving letters are: J. Orr, P. Nolan, R. Guild, E. Dupee, P. Taft, G. Kennedy.

G. A. A. OFFICERS

Back Row: Betty Ambler, Miss Brown, Muriam Harney.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Girls' Athletic Association is an organization for the benefit and entertainment of the girls who are athletically inclined. Due to the efficency of the 1938 officers, the enthusiasm of the members, and the untiring efforts and helpful advice of Miss Alice M. Brown, our faculty adviser, the club has had a most successful and enjoyable year.

The opening event of the year was the double tennis tournament. Claire Kelly and Miriam Harney were the recipients of the medals.

This year the welcoming party to the Freshmen took the form of a circus. In the gymnasium, appropriately decorated, the members entered whole heartedly into the spirit of the party.

On November 23, the G. A. A. delivered Thanksgiving baskets to several needy families of Cambridge. We wish to take this opportunity to congratulate Miss Brown and the officers, and to extend our appreciation to all those members who made it possible by their generous contributions.

At the annual Christmas party, Santa Claus himself entertained us, and gave the captains of the various teams appropriate gifts and to each member present a small box of candy. Entertainment was furnished by Freshman carolers under the direction of Anne Sullivan..

The G. A. A. Formal was held at the Hotel Commander, November 19th. We are proud to state that this year's attendance greatly exceeded that of other years.

The Girl Dance held January 7th in the Girls' Gymnasium was an overwhelming success. The especially good orchestra, the large attendance, and the competency of the members of the various committees all helped to make it a success.

On Friday evening, February 11th, an old-fashioned masquerade was held in the Girls' Gymnasium. The members came dressed in costumes of every country and every period.

This year, the G. A. A. has added to her long list of sports, another major activity, a bicycle club.

SENIOR BASKETBALL TEAM

SENIOR BASKETBALL

The senior basketball team began the season with a small but perservering group. As each girl tried her best, the team defeated the almost invincible Juniors.

The Seniors then played the Sophomores; over confident of victory, they were shocked when the Sophomores outplayed them 16-13.

However, the Seniors are a fighting, cooperative team, and they easily won the two remaining games.

The Seniors had a happy, memorable season. Among the schools they competed with are Arlington, Belmont, Waltham, Newton, and Needham.

This plucky Senior team is composed of three forwards, Marie Shaughnessy, Madeline Klam, and Mary Folan; four guards, Dorothy Twomey, Jacqueline Russell, Lillian Grace, and Pauline Brunaka; and two centers, Melba Martin, Margaret Feld, and Beatrice Loja, captain. The Seniors were deprived of their efficient manager, Edna C. Sullivan, who participated in the Senior Drama.

The Basketball Banquet held March 16 at the Riverbank Court Hotel brought an effective and happy climax to the basketball season. The long awaited silver basketballs were presented to the Seniors. The attendance this year greatly exceeded that of other years. Because of that, it was a huge and unforgettable success.

Before closing, the Senior basketball team wishes to express its appreciation to our coach and beloved friend, Miss Brown, and our sorrow at having to leave her.

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

Front: Dorothy Twomey, Phyllis Norton, Ruth Matos, Melba Marten, Captain, Helena Shates, Jacqueline Russell.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

This year, the varsity held games with Somerville and the Alumnae. They had a very successful year as they lost only one game, to the Alumnae. This was due to a slight case of overconfidence.

The first varsity was composed of Helen Shates, Dorothy Twomey, Phyllis Norton, Jacqueline Russell, Mary Folan, Melba Martin, captain, Ruth Mates, Agnes Drozd, and Beatrice Loja.

HOCKEY TEAM

First Row: Philip Carey, Lucian Phaneuf, Morton Buckley, Captain, Frank Briand, John Brennan, John Mahoney, John Powers, John Randall.

Second Row: Herbert Boudreau, James Meehan, Thomas Mahoney, Robert Mulcahy, Edward Hymes, Thomas Roache, Russell Boudreau, Francis Bradley.

Third Row: Coatonzo Melino, John Murphy, Manager, Joseph Malahan, Assistant Manager, Mr. Foley, Faculty Manager, Walter Boudreau, William Gaynas.

HOCKEY

The Cambridge Latin hockey team was the most successful of all the fall and winter teams. This year's team, composed of many veterans, was led by Capt. Buckley, who proved to be one of the most outstanding players in the Greater Boston League.

Latin School, losing only two games and tying one, finished second to the champion, Rindge. The leading scorer of the Latin team, as well as the leading scorer of the Greater Boston League, was Frank Briand. Capt. Buckley, Briand, and Walter Boudreau were picked on the interscholastic team.

Although the Latin team will miss Red Buckley and Frank Briand, stellar wings, they will not only have a veteran team next year, but the nucleus of a championship team.

Phil Carey, who had no peer as a goalie in scholastic ranks last year, was elected to lead the sextet next year.

The following were awarded letters: Capt. Buckley, Briand, W. Boudreau, H. Boudreau, R. Boudreau, E. Hines, R. Mulcahy, Capt.-elect Carey, L. Phaneuf, J. Powers, J. Mahoney, T. Mahoney, J. Meehan, J. Brennan, T. Roache, J. Randall and Manager J. Murphy.

BASKETBALL TEAM

Third Row: Mr. Foley, Faculty Manager, Lane, Kelley, Holland, Hodean, Jones, Camelio, Callahan, Manager.

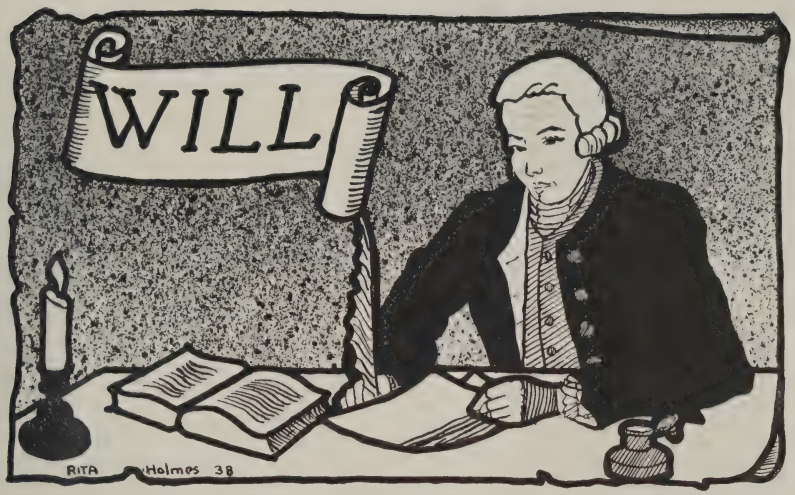
BASKETBALL

The Cambridge Latin Basketball season was not a great success. The Latin team won only two games all season, beating Revere 23-21 and Waltham 32-31.

Although a wealth of material reported to Coach Koslowski, it seemed that the proper combination could not be pieced together. Captain West featured in every game and was the leading scorer of our team. Cruickshank proved to be a fine forward.

The series with Rindge was won by Rindge who won both games by scores of 26-25 and 19-17.

The following were awarded letters: Corrigan, F. Cruickshank, V. Doyle, W. Kane, S. Liakopoulos, J. McGrail, E. O'Dwyer, A. O'Dea, J. Sheehan, Capt. H. West and Jerry Whelan.



We, the Class of 1938 of Cambridge High and Latin School, in the City of Cambridge, County of Middlesex, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, declare this to be our last will and testament hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by us.

FIRST: To the Class of '39 we leave our deepest sympathy for the months of worry they will spend over necessary credits.

SECOND: To the Juniors, who will be seeking future offices in their Class, we leave Dale Carnegie's book "How to Win Friends and Influence People."

THIRD: To the Freshmen, we donate our specially autographed books and hand-carved desks.

FOURTH: To the Sophomores, we leave an alarm clock so that their excuses will be original.

FIFTH: To the P.G.'s, a newly decorated study hall, so that they will not be a bother at future assemblies.

SIXTH: A prize to the pupil catching that "Blue Ribbon" pig who ran through our sandwiches leaving a faint odor of ham.

SEVENTH: To Mr. Bramhall, a portion of our class fund to buy a share in a local cracker company.

EIGHTH: To Mr. Cain, a part of our class fund, so that he may have a "Private Office" to call his own.

NINTH: To Miss McElroy, five new pupils with excuses for dismissal that will at least be out of the ordinary.

TENTH: To our School, we leave records of which we are justly proud.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF we hereunto set our hand to this our Last Will and Testament at Cambridge, Massachusetts, this fifth day of June, A. D. One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-Eight.

CLASS OF 1938, C.H.L.S.

The foregoing instrument was signed by the said Class of 1938 in our presence and published and declared as and for its LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT and at their request and in their presence, and in the presence of each other, we hereunto subscribe our name as attesting witnesses at Cambridge, Massachusetts, this fifth day of June, A. D. one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight.

Epilogue

Having reached the conclusion of our four-year voyage of learning, we see that the time is at hand to bid farewell to all the pleasant associations which we have made.

Although at times we were buffeted by severe storms and spells of rough weather, the many days of smooth sailing which we have experienced have been more than enough to offset our varied trials and troubles.

Toward our officers who have guided us safely in the face of many difficulties, we feel a gratitude which it is impossible to express in words.

Now we embark upon a life long voyage. It is the hope of us all to bring it to a successful conclusion.
